Sheltered housing doesn't mean living a sheltered life

Facilities

The scheme contains many communal facilities. It has a laundry room equipped with washer and dryer, and a kitchen for you to use when gathering in the homely lounge for social activities, coffee mornings etc. There is a guest room, visiting hairdresser and a computer to use.

Central location

The scheme is close to a bus stop with a ten-minute service to Preston, and regular services to Chorley, Bolton and Leyland. Easy access to local shops.

Social activities

At Charleston Court there are many events and activities including summer outings and luncheons and entertainment evenings.

Friendly scheme manager

Charleston Court benefits from a scheme manager who is there to ensure the safety and well-being of residents and to provide a link with doctors, families, friends and other support services. The scheme manager will keep in contact either by personal visit or intercom call.

Safe and secure

For resident's safety and peace of mind each flat is connected to an alarm system. This enables residents to summon assistance 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
