- Private bathrooms and kitchens
- Stair lift access to first floor
- Excellent communal facilities
- Regular social activities
- Personal visits or intercom calls by scheme manager
- 24 hour emergency alarm system

Sheltered housing doesn't mean living a sheltered life

Facilities

The scheme offers a well-appointed residents' lounge, fully fitted communal kitchen and laundry room. There is a small parking area for residents and visitors.

Central location

There are a number of local shops within a short walk of Hennel House, including a convenience store, a takeaway and hairdresser. The scheme is close to a bus stop with regular services to Preston, Chorley, Bolton and Leyland.

Social activities

Hennel House offers a wide range of social activities for its residents to enjoy.

There are many events and activities including bingo, arts and crafts. Various social excursions are also arranged for those wishing to go further afield.

Friendly scheme manager

Hennel House benefits from a scheme manager who is there to ensure the safety and well-being of residents and to provide a link with doctors, families, friends and other support services. The scheme manager will keep in contact either by personal visit or intercom call.

Safe and secure

For residents' safety and peace of mind each flat is connected to an alarm system. This enables residents to summon assistance 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
