Sheltered housing doesn't mean living a sheltered life

Facilities

The scheme offers a large residents' lounge, a fully fitted communal kitchen and a laundry room. There is a small parking area for residents and visitors. Lostock Court also has a guest bedroom that can be used by visitors.

Central location

Lostock Court is located just a short walk from the local amenities in the centre of Lostock Hall. The scheme is close to the train station and a bus stop with regular services to Preston and Leyland.

Social activities

Lostock Court offers a wide range of social activities for its residents to enjoy. There are many events and activities including craft workshops, coffee mornings, entertainment evenings and day trips.

Safe and secure

For residents' safety and peace of mind each flat is connected to an alarm system. This enables residents to summon assistance 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Friendly scheme manager

Lostock Court benefits from a scheme manager who is there to ensure the safety and well-being of residents and to provide a link with doctors, families, friends and other support services. The scheme manager will keep in contact either by personal visit or intercom call.
